

Myrtle Beach TEA Party

“The Next Steps”

Educate • Inspire • Empower

July 11, 2009 • 5 pm - 8 pm

Grand Park at Market Common • Farrow Parkway • Myrtle Beach, SC 29577

James Stallings is our Master of Ceremonies.

Jean Hampton will read our Military Tribute.

Our Guest Speakers:

“Making of America”

Chappell Dew is a lifelong North Myrtle Beach resident and businessman. Along with various civic and business industry leadership activities over the years, he served as an elected member of the Horry County School Board, representing North Myrtle Beach and Little River.

“State Sovereignty”

Nancy Morgan's goal and passion has been making available the conservative point of view. While living in Los Angeles, she did this through film and video, as owner of Morgan Productions. She now uses her weekly columns, a radio show, and a news web site to report news that the MSM forgets to report.

“School Choice”

Ara Adams is a Regional Director for Conservatives in Action, a non-profit dedicated to giving voice to the principles of conservative, common sense government in SC. CIA supports lower taxes to expand economic opportunity and spending limits to enhance government's fiscal discipline.

“Conservatives for Responsible Gov't”

Sheree Stancoven is the President of Conservatives for Responsible Government and has been involved in conservative issues since the age of 12. Sheree is passionate about this country and our fight to preserve it as a free nation and not as a socialist nation.

“Freedom And Prosperity”

Christina Jeffrey is a tenured Associate Professor of Political Science at Kennesaw State University in Georgia, and the Congressional Historian for the 104th Congress of the United States. She has worked in Germany and Turkey; and she understands the international problems we're confronted with today.

“Fair Tax”

John Steinberger teaches middle school science at Palmetto Christian Academy in Mt. Pleasant. He has been Director of the State and the 1st Congressional District Volunteers for Fair Tax. He currently serves on the Board of Directors for SCFairTax.Org working to get Fair Tax passed.

“Cap & Trade”

John Hawkins is a professional blogger who runs Conservative Grapevine and Right Wing News. In 2008 John consulted for Duncan Hunter's presidential campaign and was on the board of Slatecard which raised more than $600,000 for candidates in the 2008 election cycle.

“Illegal Immigration”

Mike Visnjic is the Director for the Horry County Chapter of the National Minuteman Civil Defense Corps and Chairman of the South Carolina State Committee. He is also a proud Soldier in the South Carolina State Guard.

“American Liberty Alliance”

Ken Cook has been involved in grass roots movements almost "full time" for the last 8 years. He founded Conservatives for Reform in 2007. He's a "Top Conservative on Twitter". Most of all he is just a regular "Joe" with a job and bills and employees and taxes. He's a mortgage banker by profession.

“Campaign for Liberty”

Daniel Cochran was awakened from his apathy by Ron Paul's run for President. The actions of the press and the Republican National Caucus awakened even more his desire to get America back to its original form of government ... a Constitutional Republic.

“Health Care - Plans”

Chuck Fitzpatrick served in the U.S. Army, Field Artillery Unit, Fort Hood, Texas. Chuck is Founder and CEO of Benefit Financial and Insurance Services. He has over 23 years in the insurance and financial industry. He has been a small and medium business owner over the course of his career.

“Make A Difference”

Mark Bennett moved to Horry County in 2006. He is the founding member of “Make A Difference in Horry County” and member of Friendship Baptist Church in Myrtle Beach. Mark spoke at our Tax Day Tea Party rally; he was a crowd favorite.

“Health Care - Providers”

Dr. Geotowski was selected to develop and head the Carolina Cancer Center in Aiken, SC, the first cancer center in western South Carolina. He is an associate clinical professor at the Medical College of Georgia in Augusta. “Dr. G” practices locally at the Carolina Regional Cancer Center.

*“When governments fear the people, there is liberty.
When the people fear the government, there is tyranny.”*
-- Thomas Jefferson